DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 3-4, 6, 8-9, 11, 13-14, and 16-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Barradas [Pat. No. 5,445,061].

Barradas teaches a device and method for making bread comprising a baking chamber (Figure 5, 12), a frame with a base member coupled to a bottom region of the baking chamber (Figure 5, #48, 54, 56), vertically spaced removable trays (Figure 4, #41; Figure 5, #58, 60, 62), a source of heat (column 2, line 45), a container for bread making ingredients (Figure 2, 24), a mixing motor (Figure 2, 14), and mixing the ingredients in the container to form a dough, dividing the dough into portions, and placing the portions into trays (column 2, lines 57-70).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2, 7, and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Barradas.

Barradas teaches the above mentioned concepts as well as racks with holes (Figure 4, 48). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide trays with holes in the invention of Barradas since Barradas teaches holes in the racks (Figure 4, 48) and since trays with holes were commonly known and utilized as evidenced by Harrison [Pat. No. 5,588,352] (Figure 6, 36).

5. Claims 5, 10, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Barradas in view of Smith-Berry et al [Pat. No. 5,890,421].

Barradas teaches the above mentioned concepts. Barradas does not teach a handle.

Smith-Berry et al teach a bread oven with a rack which has a handle (Figure 1, 30). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to incorporate the handle of Smith-Berry et al into the invention of Barradas since both are directed to bread machines with racks and since the handle taught by Smith-Berry et al would provide an effective and convenient means to remove the racks of Barradas while reducing the chance of burning or injuring the operator.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Friedrich et al [Pat. No. 5,228,385], Glucksman et al [Pat. No. 5,901,637], Chadwick et al [Pat. No. 2,671,004], Cohn et al [Pat. No. 5,782,174], and Kelsey [Pat. No. 5,19,580] teach racks and bread making machines.
